Re: Unauthorized Scraping of Viacom Media Network's Data

To Ms. Minoti:

I write on behalf of RateMyProfessors.com ("RMP"). It has recently come to our attention that you have created a web scraper that scrapes data from the RateMyProfessors.com website. Please be advised that your actions violate RateMyProfessors.com's Terms of Use Agreement (including Section 6 governing "Rules of Conduct").

Accordingly, RMP hereby demands that you immediately: (i) delete the unauthorized scraper that you created; and (ii) confirm in writing that you will never again scrape RMP's data, publicly post its information, or otherwise violate its Terms of Use Agreement. If you fail to do so, RMP will forward this matter to its Legal Department.

RMP expressly reserves all rights in connection with this matter.

Very truly yours,

RateMyProfessors.com
